

Blue Coat Reporter

Course Description:

The Blue Coat Reporter course is intended for IT network and security professionals who wish to master the fundamentals of the Blue Coat Reporter. After completing this course, you will understand:

- How to install and configure Reporter
- How Reporter works with Blue Coat Proxy SG to process access logs
- How to generate reports using various features on Reporter

The Blue Coat Reporter Course is intended for students who wish to use Reporter in their organization and learn how it can be of help in analyzing access logs. It will also cover Reporter system architecture to give students a better understanding of Reporter's components. The course will end with a discussion about deploying Reporter in local and global reporting environments, giving students an idea about how Reporter can be used in a wide range of situations.

Target Audience:

IT network professionals with responsibilities for the installation and administration of Reporter in order to manage Blue Coat ProxySG appliances and analyze access logs in their network..

Prerequisites:

Completion of the Blue Coat Certified ProxySG Administrator (BCCPA) course. Additionally, students should have an advanced knowledge of networking and be familiar with access logging concepts.

Code : ACBE -BLC-REPORT

Days : 1 day

Main Topics

- > Introduction to Blue Coat Reporter
- > Log Files
- > Reporter Installation
- > Reporter User Interface
- > Access Control
- > Managing Reports
- > Configuring Reporter